Dedication

RAYMOND JAY

Whether it is on the athletic field, in the gymnasium or in the school corridor, Mr. Jay has always pointed out, by word and example, the higher goals toward which we must strive. We picture him here holding the baseball trophy which he helped his team win. We dedicate to him this O-at-kan as a trophy which he himself has won through his untiring efforts on our behalf.

Recognition

SHIRLEY A. WOLLENBERG

Mrs. Wollenberg

As the homemaking teacher and a senior adviser, Mrs. Wollenberg has been especially close to the girls in the class. Her future plans take her to Germany next year to join her husband. We will miss her good advice and pleasant disposition.

SALVATORE W. BARONE

Mr. Barone

Mr. Barone has been a language teacher and a coach at Le Roy for the past eight years. Now he is off to greener pastures. We send with him our sincere thanks for all that he has done and our best wishes for his future success.

IN MEMORIAM

Donald O'Geen of the class of 1954 died while in the service of his country. Don was serving in the United States Army in Japan at the time of his death. His never-failing good humor and sharp wit made him a friend of many of us; his death is a loss to the entire community.

Foreword

It is no easy task to put into pictorial form all of the activities of all of the students attending Le Roy Central School. We know that there are events which we have, for one reason or another, omitted from the book. We hope, however, that what we have used is representative of the 1957-58 school year. More than anything else, we hope that the book reflects our pride in our school and our gratitude for all that it has done for us.

You will find Mother Goose ready to greet you at each section of the book. We are not absolutely certain ourselves why we chose that theme. Perhaps it was nostalgia for carefree days in grade school, or perhaps it is an indication of how much we have progressed in the past twelve years—from Mother Goose to Shakespeare, from educational toys to atomic energy.

Student Council

Student Council is the student's governmental organization. It gives permission and advice for activities, as well as carrying out some of its own. This year's elected leaders were Douglas Fiero and Josephine Costa.

Each spring there is a campaign in which juniors are allowed to run for Student Council office. After a very spirited campaign, Anthony Tabone and Sharon Scott were chosen as president and vice-president respectively.

National Honor Society

Scholarship, service, leadership and character: these are the four factors considered for admission to membership in the Honor Society. Initiation is held twice yearly — once in the fall and again in the spring.

Members selected this year by a faculty committee include Barbara Anchor, Lee Cravotta, Dwight Crocker, Loretta Dool, Jean Ellingham, Douglas Fiero, Nancy Goode, Roger Graney, Fred Hawker, Edith Lightholder, Shirley Pfaff, Carol Reamer, Richard Schmelzle, Elaine Scott and Joan Woodruff.

In April new members are elected to carry out the traditions of the Society. All students should strive for the privilege and honor attained by membership.

The Red and Black

Putting out a monthly school newspaper is not an easy job. Deadlines interfere with homework, and money raising activities consume much time. The staff of The Red and Black, under the able guidance of Miss Celso, managed to overcome these obstacles and publish a newsworthy paper. Considerable credit should be given to the members of the various classes who contributed regularly.

O-AT-KAN STAFF

The editors here inspect page layouts for the 1958 edition of the O-at-kan.

The O-At-Kan

The ultimate goal of the O-at-kan staff has always been to make their book the very best yearbook Le Roy High School has ever had. Choosing a theme, laying out the book, taking the pictures, selecting a cover design, and writing the copy are just a few of the many tasks that have to be complete. By the end of the year the staff and workers are exhausted, but seeing the finished (year book) makes them realize that it was not all in vain.

The Yorkers

The purpose of the Hartwood Chapter is to give us a better understanding of our community, state, nation and world. Membership is open to any student in grades 7-9 upon recommendation of two or three teachers.

The Stamp Club

Started in 1955, the Stamp Club is open to all students in grades 7 through 12. Members are given a chance to get pointers on stamp collecting and gain knowledge of the geographical and historical background of this interesting and educational hobby.

The Red Key Club

The Red Key Service Club is composed of students from grades 7-12 who volunteer their services knowing that they may be called upon any time. These hard working students deserve much praise.

The A. V. Club

The Audio-Visual Club is a club formed by Mr. Kurth, who teaches the boys how to operate movie equipment. After the boys have learned about the equipment, they show movies in the classrooms.

The Atom Busters

The Atom Busters is a science club formed by Mr. Gallagher. This club meets eighth period every Monday to work on science projects. The best projects are taken to Brockport for the Science Fair.

The Stage Crew

The Stage Crew is a group of boys who take care of all the assemblies and shows that go on during the school year. The boys are under the direction of Mr. Lane.

The Photography Club

The Photography Club, guided by Mrs. Russell, keeps itself busy by taking and printing the majority of the O-at-kan photographs and taking the occasional school publicity picture. The camera and equipment are owned by the O-at-kan.

The Library Club

The members of the Library Club are students who voluntarily sacrifice some of their leisure time to aid the busy librarians. Their services have been greatly appreciated by their school and classmates.

The F. T. A.

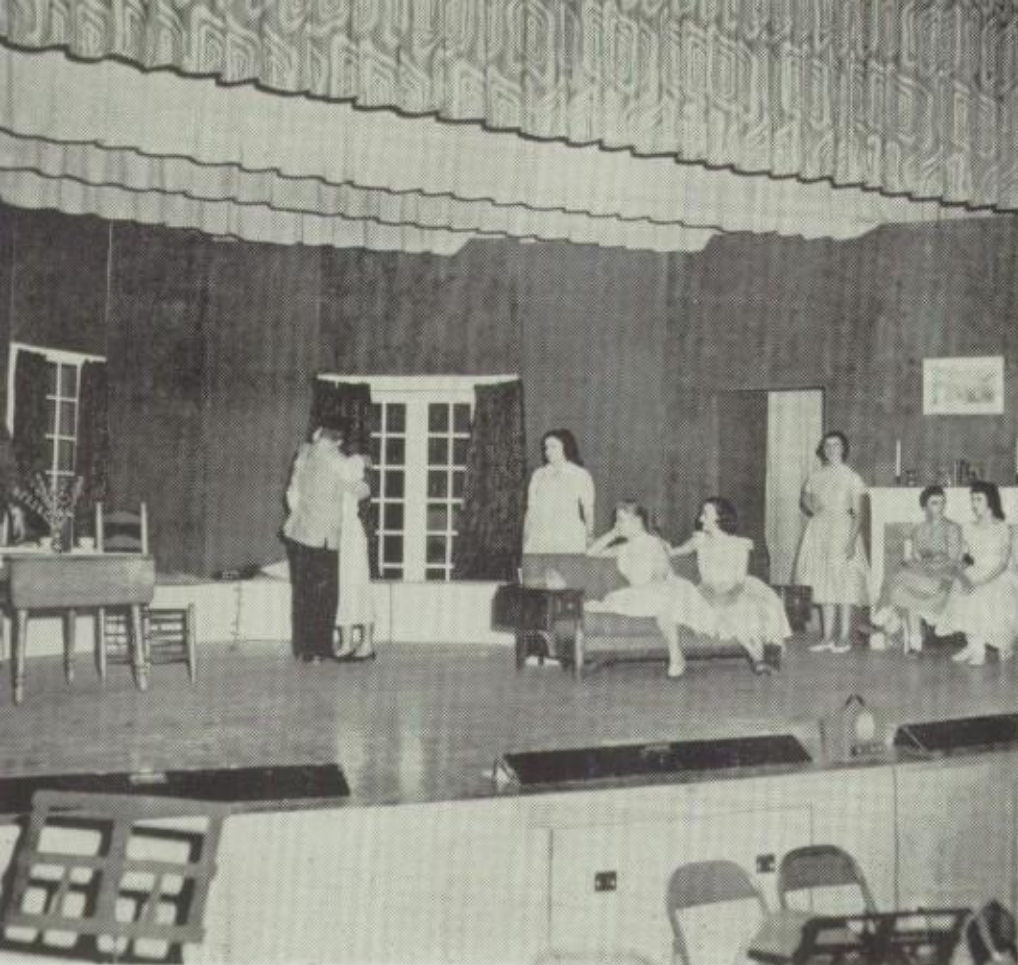

The primary objective of the Future Teachers of America is to encourage high school students to consider teaching as a career and to give them an insight into the duties and obligations of a teacher.

The F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization consisting of boys in grades 9 through 12 taking a vocational farming course. Leadership, co-operation and good citizenship are stressed in this organization.

Instrumental Music

Mr. Freeman, the new director of the instrumental department, has worked hard to perfect the bands this year. He set up projects for the Senior Band, so they could raise money to buy needed uniforms.

In April, the Senior Band went to Oakfield to the Genesee County Festival. Many of the band members participated in County Band. Some of the junior high band members had a chance to take part in the new Junior High County Band

Vocal Music

As one walks down the gym corridor on Monday, sixth period, he is bound to be pleasantly surprised by the harmonious sounds made by our boys' chorus. Although this group does no concert work, it rehearses songs for participation in mixed chorus.

The Oatkannaires have brought many honors to

Le Roy High. The chorus showed its abilities in our annual Christmas Concert, two folk operas, "The Lowland Sea", and "Cumberland Fair", and the Spring Concert. They also received a high rating at the Genesee County Music Festival.

Football

The 1957 football season was among the finest in the history of the school. It was mediocre so far as won and lost record was concerned, but few teams have equaled the spirit and determination that characterized this squad. The highlight of the season was a loss, a one-point, come-from-behind loss, to Brighton. This game was typical of the spirit of the team which, in spite of injuries to key players and tough breaks on the field, refused to roll over and play dead to any opponent in the league. It would be hard to choose outstanding players on this squad because team work was always predominant, but mention should be made of Joe Antinore and Rodney Steverson, who were All-Conference selections, and to Coaches Jay, Barone and Stitt.

Basketball

The scorebook indicates that this basketball season was not among the most successful in the annals of the school, but the scorebook does not give the complete picture. Most of the veterans from last year's squad had graduated and Coach Longhini was forced to field a green team, composed primarily of juniors. Even so the team gave a creditable account of itself and many of the losses were by very few points. The saddest game of the season was a heartbreaking loss to Albion in the sectional play-offs when we came from far behind only to lose in the final minutes. The return of most of the squad and the success of Mr. Rudman's J. V. squad gives hope that our basketball fortunes will rise again next year.

Golf

Last year, Le Roy's golf team had a record of three wins and seven losses. As a member of the tri-county league, they played such schools as Brighton, East Rochester, Allendale, Irondequoit, and Dansville. Mr. Kurth instructed last year's team and drove them to and from matches.

Track

After a long absence, track is in its 3rd year at L.H.S. The Knights had a very successful season. They were undefeated in dual meets and placed 2nd in the county with Alexander, Miller, Steverson, Heimlich and Williams qualifying for the sectionals at the University of Rochester.

B. A. A. Bowling

Boys' bowling, this year as usual, was a highlight of the boys' intramural program. The competition was really keen this year, with first place being taken by Dave Bryant's team on the last day. The other teams finished in this order: Yauchzee, Fiero, Redman, Peck Rizzo, Costa and Pangrazio. The names given are those of the team captains.

G. A. A. Bowling

A sport most anxiously looked forward to by all girls in grades nine through twelve is GAA bowling. As the climax of this year's season, the top bowlers from Le Roy won the tri-county championship. These girls are Barbara Anchor, Carol Reamer, Elaine Scott, and Sharon Scott.

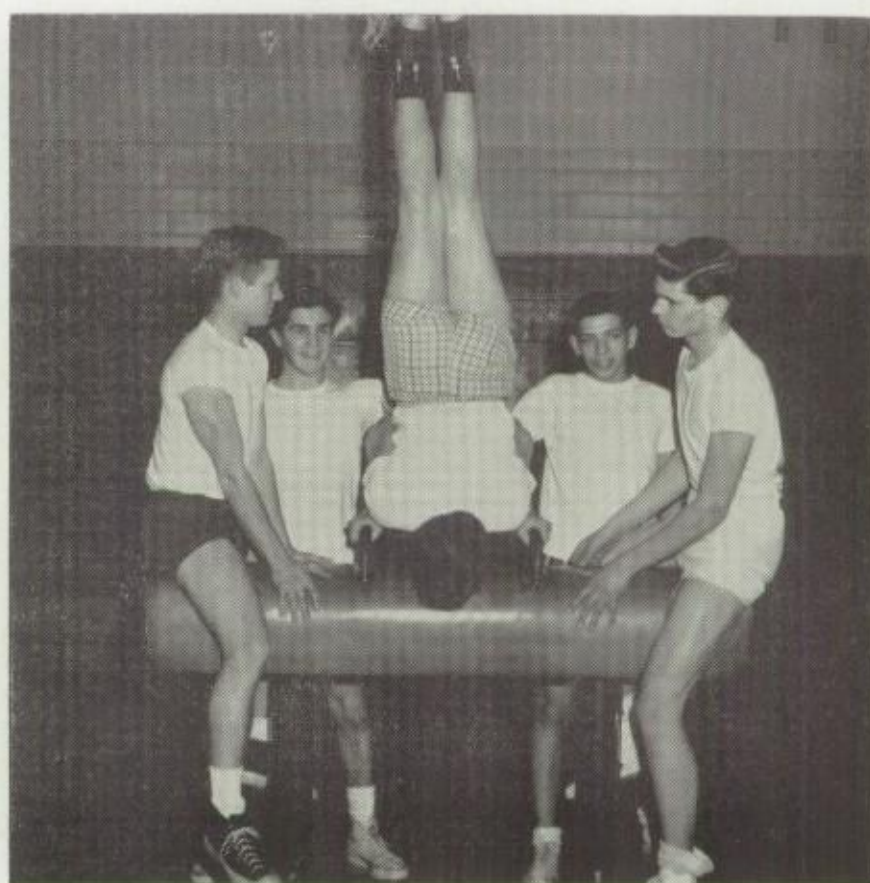

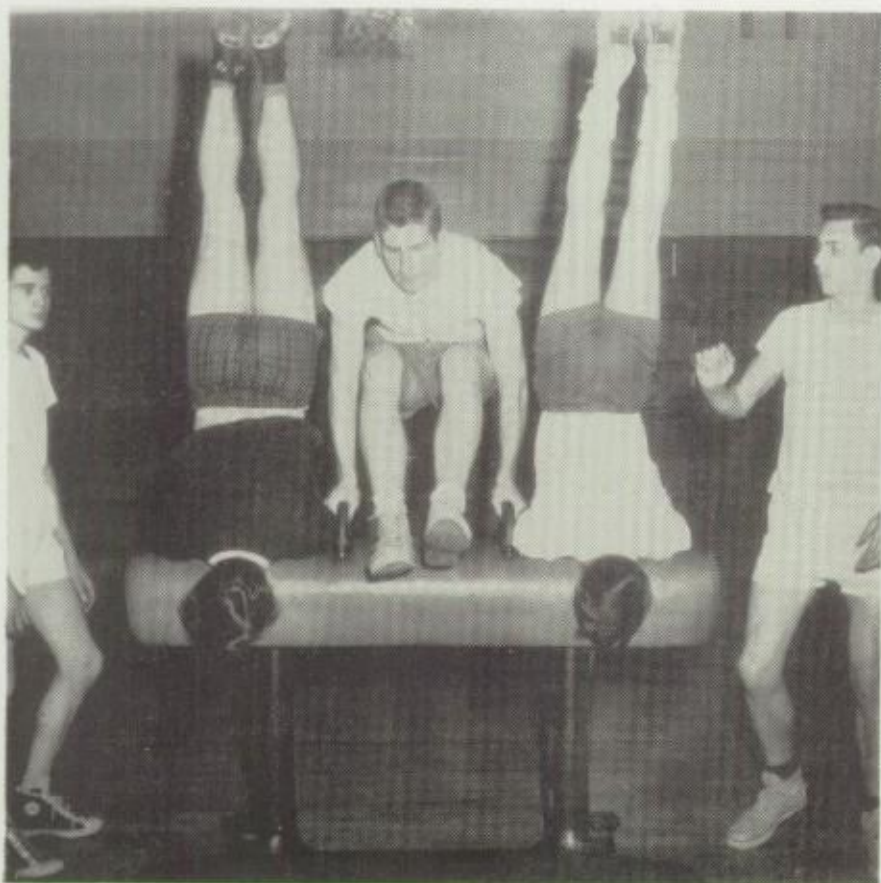

B. A. A.

The Boys' Athletic Association is a loosely knit organization comprising all the boys in high school. Four officials are selected to represent the boys in the athletic business which is carried on by the B.A.A. The organization has no specific activities other than that handled by their representatives.

The Girls' Athletic Association is composed of any girl in high school who takes an active part in the girls' sports program. Awards are numerals, shield, letter, and the gold key. This year the "Golden 600" was awarded. A gold trophy will be given to a girl who accumulates over 600 points.

The Grades

Grammar School Principal

Horace B. Myers

The Wolcott Street School

"Just above O-at-ka's waters," stands Le Roy's institution of elementary learning. Children have eagerly and reluctantly climbed the steps of this building, not realizing that this is an important step in a democratic nation. In many countries of the world, free public education is a dream. For our children the goal has been reached. Here they have learned the fundamentals of education, the cornerstones upon which they build their lives and the nation. As these children proceed up the road of maturity, they come to realize the priceless gift of education that was bestowed on them in the Wolcott Street School.

Mrs. Smith

MRS. EILEEN SMITH serves as secretary to Mr. Myers in the Wolcott Street School. Her help in handling O-at-kan work makes our job much easier.

Miss Erickson

Music

For many years the grade school music department has been in the capable hands of Miss Ethel Erickson. The Wolcott Street School chorus and instrumental lessons have laid a fine foundation for students' future musical endeavors.

Art

The art department of the Wolcott Street School has as its aim self-expression through many media. Ably assisted by their teacher, Mr. Kener Bond, students enjoy their work and many show promise as future Rembrants.

Mr. Bond

Gym

Physical Education in the Wolcott Street School consists of many games and sports, tumbling, marching and, in some classes, square dancing. This department sponsors a gym exhibition each year in which the children get a chance to show their skills to their parents and friends.

SEVENTH GRADE OFFICERS
Mary Lou Ianita, Darlene Peters, Frances Parmelee, Allan Wade.

A trip to the Le Roy house made the history of Le Roy more real to these seventh graders.

The first part of our year as seventh graders was spent getting accustomed to the big change that had taken place in our schooling. A different building, a different teacher for each subject and a set schedule confused us for a time, but we soon became acclimated and settled into the routine of things. We elected officers early in the year and chose Allen Wade as president, Darlene Peters as vice president, and Mary Lou Ianita and Frances Parmelee as secretary and treasurer respectively. Under their leadership and with the guidance of our advisers, Miss DeVoe and Mr. Taber, we set out to make this a successful year. An assembly program which we participated in was well received by the upper classmen and one of the highlights of our year.

EIGHTH GRADE OFFICERS
Marcia Dickinson, John Thorn, Donna Jeary, Bonnie Bradbury.

These ladies cheered the junior high basketball team on to victory.

Mr. Hillis conducts a meeting of the Eighth Grade Science Club.

The class of 1963 made this year, our last in junior high school, a memorable one. We began the year with the following group of officers: John Thorn, president; Donna Jeary, vice-president; Bonnie Bradbury, secretary and Marcia Dickinson, treasurer. In addition we chose Roger Didget, Allen Lindsley and Joan Rumsey to represent us in Student Council. We were fortunate to have Mr. Kurth and Mr. Rudman as our advisors. In addition to our regular classes, all sorts of activities consumed our time. We had basketball players, cheerleaders, actors and actresses, skaters and dancers. We sang, played musical instruments and tumbled in gym exhibitions. Most of the time, however, we attended classes, studied and learned. Next year we begin our climb through high school toward graduation.

Freshmen

FRESHMEN ADVISERS
Mr. Hillis, Miss Celso, Mr. Gallagher.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS
Jack Jeary, Bonny Hillman, Willis Beal, Karen Duson.

Mr. Steblein lends a helping hand to John and Harold.

The Biology course includes making slides for microscope work.

With a class of about one hundred-twenty students we need the helpful assistance of advisers. This year we were fortunate to have the aid of Mr. Hillis, Mr. Gallagher, and Miss Celso.

This year we elected the following as representatives to student council: Douglas Boatfield, Ernest Curtis, Marcia McNish and Linda True.

Two special activities our class were allotted were the food stand during the basketball season and our Freshman assembly, which was a take-off on Uncle Jerry's Club. A record dance with two disk jockeys started our class off with a bang. Near the end of the school year our class held a class night for our parents. We roller skated and provided entertainment and refreshments.

All together this has been a fun-packed and, we hope, an educational year.

After a successful struggle through our freshman year, the class of 1960 plunged with enthusiasm into our sophomore year. To lead us we chose Richard Mogavero president, Jim Woodruff vice president, Roseanne O'Geen secretary, Kathy McClelland treasurer, and Joanne Merica representative-at-large. Under the guidance of these officers and class advisers, Mr. Mangefrida, Mr. Du Mont, Mr. Sackett, and Mr. Steblein, we had a successful year, both financially and socially.

Our first event was the dance, "Autumn Leaves". It was followed by a very profitable baked food sale. Classmates participated in the snow sculpturing, sent observers to Model Congress, and had a large response to the Sophomore Speaking Contest. Our Class of 1960 presented an assembly program, "The Sleeve Gallon Show", which will be long remembered by all who saw it.

JUNIOR OFFICERS
Martha Lapp, Sheila McHardy, Joseph Lapp,
Anthony Tabone.

Candidates for Student Council offices line up before the rostrum.

Joe Lapp and Jane Boyd became members of royalty during the Junior Prom.

The Junior Class forged ahead this year under the leadership of capable officers. Joe Lapp was elected president with Martha Lapp as vice president. Sheila McHardy and Tony Tabone handled the jobs of secretary and treasurer.

Our major accomplishment was held November 29th in the form of the Junior Prom. "Twilight Terrace" was the theme and Jane Boyd and Joe Lapp, as king and queen, ruled over the dancers.

A political air hung over L.H.S. as Sharon Scott, Joe Lapp, Jane Boyd, Dale Cohen, Karen Leitner, and Tony Tabone campaigned vigorously for the presidency and vice-presidency of Student Council.

We were busy constantly as we held a baked food sale, March of Dimes dance and record hop. We also participated in the snow sculpturing contest, Model Congress, the operettas and varsity sports.

Class Officers: Shirley Pfaff, John Tompkins, Wendell Call, Robert Dedman.

Seniors

We began the final steps of our climb toward graduation by electing Wendell Call to lead us. Chosen to help him were Bob Dedman, Shirley Pfaff, and John Tompkins. Our advisors, Mrs. Wollenberg, Mr. Taggart, and Mr. Blanke, guided us skillfully through our senior year.

Our treasury was given a boost by our refreshment stand at the football games and later by our highly successful Spaghetti Supper. Many of us had the chance to display our acting ability in our senior play, "Fog Island", a mystery thriller.

The dreamy music of our Senior Ball provided a wonderful evening, one not soon to be forgotten. Our senior trip to Crystal Beach was another fun-filled event.

Class night and Commencement were the final steps in our climb. They were perhaps the happiest yet the saddest days of our lives, happy because they meant the beginning of a new way of life for us, and sad because they signified the end of our years at Le Roy High.

Senior Class Advisors: Mr. Taggart, Mrs. Wollenberg, Mr. Blanke.

Carol, Edie, and Gary create a big stink.
